The Congressional Excursionists being Reconstructed.

The Southern tour of the Congressional excursionists furnishes the gratifying evidence that the work of reconstruction is progressing. Contrary to their expections, if not their fears, the party have not only gone through the South without injury or molestation, but they have met with a hospitable reception wherever they between the standing their determination to be reticent, not to have anything to say, their lips were unsealed by the kindness and courtesy of the people and their cordial reception. The radicals did not expect such treatment, probably they had strong misgivings upon the point whether they deserved the hospitality of the people whom they had denounced with all the bitterness that party hate could inspire, and without any personal considerations to excite the facility of the people whom they had denounced with all the bitterness that party hate could inspire, and without any personal considerations to excite of radicalism in regard to reconstruction. Two Styles of Baptism.

Two styles of Baptism.

Feor people have a hard time in this world tents. Even in the matter of religion there is a vast difference betworn Lazauts and dives, as the following amediate, copied from a rechange, will illustrate:

Old Bills G... had attended a great regival, and, in common with many others, he was "convicted" and baptised. Not many two seeks after one of his friends met him recling, some from the court ground with a considerable "brick" in his hat.

"Hello, Uncle Bills," said his friend, "I hought you had joined the church?"

"So I did," answered Billy, making a desperate effort to stand still, "I did, Jeems, and would a bin a good Baptist if they hadn't treated meso everlastin' mean at the water. Didn't you hear about it, Jeems?"

"No, I never did,"

"Then I'll tell you'bout it. You see, when we come to the baptizin' place, there was old Sinks, the rich old squire, who was to be dipped at the same time. Well, the minister took the squire in first, but I didn't mind that much, as I thought 'twould be just as good when I cam; so he led him in mighty keerful and wiped his face and led him out. Well, then cam my turn, and instead of liftin' me out as he did the squire, he gave me one slosh and left me crawlin' around on the bottom like a mud turtle—that's so, Jeems."

An Extraord mary Elopement.
The Fife-bire, Scotland, Advertiser reports an eigenment of the eldest son in one of the first tamilies of Fife-bire, with his father's cost. The young gentleman had been reared with the greatest care, and had only returned from Eaton last, year, with high academic honors. He was designed, by his father, as the hasband of a young and beautiful helress, to whom he had even paid his addresses. The bride, who is a buxom brunette, is some years older than the bridegroom, and has been in the fa mly for a considerable period. It was discovered that they had departed for Montrose, whither the father of the hero followed, but only to find them slumbering in each other's arms. So enraged was the old gentleman that, forgetting all delicacy, he was about to eject her from the bedroom, when she collared her quondam master, and hurled him headlong from the apartment. The runaway son endeavored to explain and pacify his insulted parent, when the lady seized her husband, and conveyed him almost viet armis back to the bedroom, locked the door. The gentleman is entitled to considerable property in his own right. The pair are holding the honeymen now at Cheltenham.

Recommendations HON. JAMES THOMPSON. Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866. I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a val-table medicine in case of attacks of indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my expe-cience in it. Yours with respect, JAMES THOMPSON.

rom A. McMakin, Esq., New York, No. Broadway, March 29, 1866. Dear Sir:—I take great pleasure in testifying to the extraordinary remedial qualities of the Hoof land's German Bitters, procured at your estab lishment.

A member of the family has been for many years a perfect martyr to Dyspepsis, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing offsprings of a torpid liver, until persuaded to try the above celebrated remedy, which in a few weeks resulted in making her (to use her own words) "a new woman" You are at liberty to make any use of this you see fit, or refer similar sufferers to. Yours, truly, A. McMAKIN.

From the Rev. LEVI G. BECK, Pastor of the Bap-tist Church, Pemberton, N. J., formerly of the North Baptist Church Philadelphia, at presen Pastor of the Baptist, Church, Chester, Pa. I have known Hoofand's German Bitters favor-ably for a number of years. I have used them in my own family, and have been so pleased with their effects, that I was induced to recommend them to many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. take great pleasure in thus publicly proclaiming this fact, and calling the attention of those af-flicted with the diseases for which they are recom-mended, to these Bitters, knowing from expe-rience that my recommendation will be sustained I do this more cheerfully as Hoofand's Bitters is intended to benefit the afflicted, and is "not a rum drink." Yours, truly, Yours, truly, LEVI G. BECK.
